

Students Seek Mulberry Tree

Nature-loving third graders in Mrs. Fern Dooley's class at Crenshaw School would give a lot to be able to "go around a mulberry tree"—and so would a bunch of hungry silkworms.

Class members have been "beating the bushes" lately to find a mulberry tree. The group is studying animals and when their teacher was given some silkworm eggs, they eagerly awaited the day when the eggs would hatch.

The catch is that silkworms will grow only if they have plenty of mulberry leaves to eat. To date, the class has been unable to locate a mulberry tree. Anybody who can help the class—and the silkworms—can call the school.

In Years Gone By

Gambling made the headlines 20 years ago this week, according to the HERALD files of April 6, 1939. In a series of week-end vice roundups conducted by Capt. Walter J. Hunter, 28 men were arrested in two simultaneous El Prado pool hall raids. Within an hour after they were booked at police headquarters, all 28 had been released on bail. Fourteen showed up for trial to pay their fines, and 12 chose to skip bail, which had been set at $10. Operators of the pool halls were fined $25 and $50 for "operating a gambling hall." In all, the city wound up $340 richer for having raided the pool halls. Other extra-legal activities in Torrance that week involved the theft of seven hens and a rooster from a 235th St. henhouse, a teenage robbery of $50 worth of aluminum and scrap copper from an industrial plant; a stolen spare tire and battery from a car parked in front of an apartment house; and thefts of a lantern from a sand pile, shaft and gear from a metal company, and $50 worth of fishing tackle from a physician's garage.

Curb parkways and sidewalks were the subject of a proposal by the chief assistant county forester which would change the location of the planting strips and walks so that the paved walkway would be located immediately next to the curb line and the parkway would be located adjacent to the front property line, in order to give tree roots better chances of expansion.

In an essay contest for junior and senior high school students sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary, all six top prizes went to girl students, proving that the Torrance high school and junior high school gal of 20 years ago could wield a mean pen!
